Shooting in Aldi's Parking Lot Injures Two

On Wednesday, August 31, 2016 at approximately 11:15am, New Brunswick police officers responded to the area of Aldi's (7 Van Dyke Avenue) to investigate a possible shooting. Upon the officer's arrival they confirmed that a shooting did occur and the suspects had fled on foot. As a result of the shooting two individuals were injured and treated at Saint Peter's University Hospital for their non-life threatening injuries. Both victims are male in gender and reside in New Brunswick. They are 21 and 19 years of age respectively. The preliminary investigation suggests that this was a targeted act and not a random act of violence. The first suspect is described as a black male wearing a black t-shirt, black shorts and black and white sneakers. The second suspect is described as a black male wearing a blue shirt. This investigation is ongoing and anyone with information is asked to call Detective Drew Weiss or Detective Erika DiMarcello at (732) 745-5217.
