

City of New Brunswick 2013 URBAN CLEANUP WEEK

- Sat. April 13, 2013 Large Volunteer Group Cleanup Day
Large Volunteer Groups kick off the week with litter cleanups at various locations throughout the City.
- Sun. April 14, 2013 Sweep-up Sunday
Residents' cleanup litter on their own front lawns, sidewalks, curbs & 24" into the street.
- Mon. April 15, 2013 Make Your Storefront Look Great Day
Businesses do their part by removing litter & cleaning up to 24" into the street. Washing sidewalks, removing graffiti & cleaning windows.
- Tues. April 16, 2013 Tidy-Up Tuesday
Non-Profits & Houses of Worship do a quick pickup of litter on their own property.
- Wed. April 17, 2013 It's Earth Day at DPW
Residents can drop-off paint, paint related items, TV's & Computers for recycling at DPW from 9am-2pm. Residents can pick up 20 FREE biodegradable leaf bags per property. Residents can take FREE compost & mulch while supplies last.
- Thurs. April 18, 2013 School Kids Sweep Up Day
5th graders from select City schools will cleanup litter at their school & in the neighborhood surrounding their school. Students will be educated about litter and how their actions can help protect the environment. Students will then participate in a Clean City Celebration and play in the Slam Dunk the Junk Basketball Tournament.
- Fri. April 19, 2013 Flower Up Friday
The first 200 New Brunswick residents can pick up a FREE 6-pack of annual flowers at Livingston Park Nursery near Livingston Avenue at 1036 How Lane from 8am-6pm. Additional flowers can be purchased for 20% off that day for New Brunswick residents only.
- Sat. April 20, 2013 Large Volunteer Group Cleanup Day
Large Volunteer Groups conduct litter cleanups at various locations throughout the City.

Earth Day is officially Monday, April 22, 2013.
Everyone should celebrate by taking steps to Keep New Brunswick Clean, Save Natural Resources & to Protect Our Earth!

Call 732-745-5245 or go to www.cityofnewbrunswick.org for more information

